

Richtech Robotics' Titan Selected as Robotics Innovation of the Year by the SupplyTech Breakthrough Awards

June 12, 2025

Las Vegas, NV, June 12, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Richtech Robotics Inc. (Nasdaq: RR) ("Richtech Robotics" or the "Company"), a Nevada-based provider of AI-driven service robots, announced that its Titan robot was selected as the winner of the Robotics Innovation of the Year award by the 4th annual SupplyTech Breakthrough Awards program. The Titan robot is designed to increase efficiency and revenue by streamlining delivery, in the automotive repair space for example, allowing employees to work faster and smarter.

"We're honored that our Titan robot has been recognized by the SupplyTech Breakthrough Awards for its innovation and impact," said Matt Casella, President of Richtech Robotics. "Integrating Titan into multi-bay automotive service centers highlights how robotics can eliminate repetitive tasks, boost technician productivity, and ultimately create more value for both businesses and their customers."

Richtech Robotics is partnering with leading auto dealerships across the U.S. to integrate its Titan robot into their workflow in order to save time, reduce operational expenses, and enhance overall efficiency. For example, at large multi-bay service centers with a variety of warehouse footprints, customers have reported that Titan has been able to save technicians an average of an hour per day, while also improving the accuracy of the internal parts delivery system.

The SupplyTech Breakthrough Awards, a part of the Tech Breakthrough Organization, is a recognition platform for companies and individuals driving significant advancements in the supply chain and logistics industry through technology.
