3. We note your revised disclosures in response to prior comment 3 and your reference to ASC 805-10-55-3(c) as it relates to the conversion of member units into common stock.

Please tell us how you determined that this qualifies as a business combination transaction. Specifically address how you considered the guidance in ASC 805-10-15-4(c) and ASC 805-50-15-6 and why you believe the conversion of member equity units to common stock does not qualify as a common control transaction.

Alternatively, revise your disclosures as necessary. To the extent you determine this qualifies as a common control transaction, ensure that members equity is reflected in the fiscal 2021 financials statements and that you have properly reflected the reclassification of members equity during fiscal 2022 to paid-in-capital. Refer to ASC 805-50-45-4 and SAB Topic 4.B, by analogy.

You may contact Megan Akst, Senior Staff Accountant, at (202) 551-3407 or Kathleen
